Appendix to the Resolution No. 1 of the Ordinary General Meeting of RAFAKO S.A.
of 12 May 2003r

REGULATIONS ON SESSIONS OF GENERAL MEETINGS OF FABRYKA KOTŁÓW RAFAKO S.A.

1. These Regulations determine the mode of holding General Meetings of Fabryka Kotłów RAFAKO S.A.
2. The General Meeting shall be opened by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board or a person designated by him/her.
3. A person who opens the General Meeting shall immediately hold an election of a Chairperson of the General Meeting from among the persons entitled to vote.
4. The Chairperson of the General Meeting confirms the legitimacy of convening the General Meeting as well as its capacity to make resolutions on the basis of the evidence of convening the General Meeting and an attendance list with signatures of participants at a Meeting. The attendance list includes a number of shares presented by each of the participants and a number of votes he/she is entitled to. The attendance list should be drawn up immediately after electing a Chairperson, then signed by him/her and presented at the General Meeting.
5. The Chairperson of the General Meeting suggests the composition of the returning committee, or the election committee, or the returning and election committee, which shall assure efficient conduct of the General Meeting and he/she orders the election thereof.
6. In case of the returning committee, it counts the number of votes cast for and against passing a resolution as well as the number of abstaining votes. A written statement of a committee concerning the number of votes shall be handed over to the Chairperson of the General Meeting, who shall announce the results of a vote giving the number of the votes cast for and against passing a resolution as well as the number of abstaining votes.

7. In case of the election committee it counts the number of votes cast during an election and on motions for removal of members of the governing bodies or liquidators, for bringing them to justice, as well as in personal matters. A written statement of a committee concerning the number of votes shall be presented to the Chairperson of the General Meeting, who shall announce the results of a vote giving the number of the votes cast for and against passing a resolution as well as the number of abstaining votes.
8. The General Meeting can make resolutions irrespective of the number of shareholders present and of shares represented.
9. The General Meeting may decide to have breaks at meetings by a majority of two thirds of votes. The breaks may jointly last no longer than 30 days.
10. Each share confers the right to one vote at the General Meeting.
11. Resolutions of the General Meeting are passed by an absolute majority of votes cast, unless the rules of law or the Statute of RAFAKO S.A. specify otherwise. An absolute majority of votes means more than half of the votes cast.
12. A vote shall be open. A secret vote shall be ordered during elections with the exception of the election of a Chairperson of the General Meeting and members of the committee, as referred to in item 5 of these Regulations. A secret vote may also be ordered on motions for removal of members of the governing bodies or the liquidators of the Company, or for bringing them to justice, as well as in personal matters. Moreover, a secret vote shall be ordered upon the motion of at least one shareholder entitled to vote.
13. Election of members of the Supervisory Board by voting in separate groups is conducted in the following way:
 - a) Determining the number of the members of the Supervisory Board,
 - b) Determining a minimum number of votes which entitle to create a separate group (the number of votes present shall be divided by the number of seats on the Supervisory Board),
 - c) Proposing groups which shall be entitled to elect members of the Supervisory Board by voting in separate groups (the Report concerning the creation of a Group shall be submitted to the Chairperson),

Marek Stodul

- d) Holding elections in Groups in the presence of a Notary:
- signing an attendance list,
 - distributing ballot papers among the members of a group,
 - electing a Chairperson and an Election Committee of a Group,
 - proposing candidates for the Supervisory Board,
 - holding a secret vote,
 - preparing a Report of the Election Committee and of a suitable Resolution of the Group,
- e) Holding elections by the remaining shareholders:
- proposing candidates,
 - distributing ballot papers,
 - holding a secret vote,
 - preparing a Report of the Election Committee and of a suitable Resolution of the General Meeting.

14. Resolutions on changing the objects of the Company shall always be passed in a personal open vote.
15. Voting procedure may also be carried out with the application of computer technology. A suitable committee shall prepare a report on each vote, but the results of voting shall be announced by the Chairperson.
16. The General Meeting may only pass resolutions on matters which are on the agenda. The agenda shall be determined by the Management Board.
17. Motions concerning changes to the contents of draft resolutions shall be proposed to the Chairperson in writing and signed by a submitting person.
18. The Chairperson of the General Meeting holds meetings pursuant to the agenda, gives the floor to the participants and takes it, and makes suitable regulatory decisions. Each participant of a General Meeting who has the right to vote may appeal to the General Meeting against the Chairperson's decision.
19. Minutes of General Meetings shall be kept by a notary.
