Mr Szymański's primary focus is advisory services in broadly understood commercial law matters, including corporate and day-to-day operations of commercial-law companies.

He has hands-on experience in handling complex restructuring procedures, organisational and ownership transformations and bankruptcy proceedings.

He has coordinated legal support of large and complex construction contracts performed by large consortia involving foreign entities.

Mr Szymański provides legal advice in carrying out challenging infrastructural and development projects, including the process of raising financing for the projects. He also handles administrative law proceedings and provides advice on PPP projects.

He acts as a mediator and negotiator in court and out-of-court disputes.

Mr Szymański also offers advisory and management services on foreign markets, especially in Eastern Europe.

He has a fluent command of Russian and knows basic German.

Mr Szymański has served and serves on management and supervisory boards of domestic and foreign commercial-law companies.
